Did you know that in order to join the Legion of Super Heroes that each super hero must have at least one power or ability that no one else does? That is remarkable when you think of each of the Super Heroes powers and what they have done to continually save the earth from aliens, crooks, thieves, and others wanting to destroy the earth. But, as you look at each of these Super Heroes what is the one thing they have in common when saving the earth – they are taking ACTION!

As we started 2013, and people were using social media to reflect on 2012 many stated it was a challenging year. A year of challenges related to what we saw in politics, the economy, tragedies in our country, not even to mention the personal challenges we each faced. However, the great thing about starting a new year is we can make resolutions and look to the future with a smile and hope for a better tomorrow. However, the better tomorrow comes from us as 4-H members, volunteers, parents, and Extension employees striving to make the best better! And, how do we make the best better in 2013 – we become ACTION LEADERS!

Taking action and making the difference in our communities is something 4-H has been doing for more than 105 years in Texas. When Tom Marks started the Corn Clubs (4-H) in Jack County in 1907 he did so because he needed action to take place. He had worked and worked with the adult farmers to have them adopt the new techniques, but they just wouldn’t, so he stopped talking, and started creating action by recruiting the young men of the county to grow the latest varieties of corn using the new techniques. What happened? Corn production from those young men’s crop was historical and Tom Marks started a revolution. For many of us in 4-H, and in Texas history, he is truly a hero for his action vs. his words.

We have all seen these ‘leaders’ who use the television, social media, or other media to demonstrate their “leadership greatness.” But are they truly the leaders making the difference through positive actions, or just people speaking words. For the majority of us in 4-H we are action leaders already within our club and county, but what about outside of 4-H? Are we actively making a difference in our communities through our school, church, or other organizations?

So, here’s the 2013 challenge to the Texas 4-H Family! Leave your “bat cave” and become a Super Action Leader Hero for your community. Identify the changes and then create the action for bettering your community. Don’t be Robin when you have the unique power as a 4-H member to be Bat Man! Our country needs more Super Heroes - young people that will lead and guide our country, and world, into a better place and be the much needed role models! Make 2013 a great year full of rewards and accomplishments that you and your community can be proud of, and don’t forget to bring along your band of other super 4-H heroes as you save the day in 2013!

Central Texas FIRST LEGO League Competition
Annie May, annie.may@ag.tamu.edu
On December 8, 2012 at the Texas A&M University Central Texas campus in Killeen, Texas hosted the Central Texas FIRST LEGO League Qualifying Competition. FIRST LEGO League is a program that engages youth in real-world engineering challenges. At the competition the youth present their robot design to a panel of engineers, present their research project to scientists and industry professionals, launch their robots in head-to-head games where they can earn points for each task completed, and they are also judged on their team work and display of the FLL core values throughout the day. The core values include, learning is more important than winning, honor the spirit of friendly competition, learn together, and display gracious professionalism and cooperation. Texas Military 4-H Tech Wizards had 17 youth, divided into three teams, representing them at the competition. The Leopard Robotics team from Smith Middle School received the Inspiration Award. The Inspiration Award celebrates a team that is empowered by their FLL experience and displays extraordinary enthusiasm and spirit. The Smith Middle School Tech Wizards team received the Gracious Professionalism Award. This award recognizes a team whose members show each other and other teams respect at all times; they recognize that both friendly competition and mutual gain are possible, on and off the playing field.

Fort Bliss Hero Pack Presentation
Cari Hutchenson
The Fearless Falcons Support Group at Bliss Elementary was founded by Nermin Overby in 2010. The Soaring Hawks Support Group at Logan Elementary was founded by Nermin Overby and Tracey Beach 2010. Both groups were created to provide emotional support for children dealing with military life issues. The goals of these support groups are to help students develop coping skills to better prepare them to deal with the issues of military life, to teach the resiliency and to provide a safe environment for these youth to express their emotions. The group met every Tuesday from 3:15 to 4:15 for 14 weeks. During this time they received guidance and training in self-esteem, communication, bullying, problem solving, anger management, deployment and re-unification. These children are currently dealing with a pending deployment. Operation: Military Kids was proud to support these youth in their program and with the help of various agencies were able to put together Hero Packs. Upon their graduation 75 youth from the two support programs were presented with the Hero Packs. The youth received materials to help them stay in touch with their deployed family member, journals to help continue with the great coping skills they learned during the program and letters of support from other youth. Also included in the packs were many items from the community and Comfort Crew/USO so generously donated 75 deployment packs that included a teddy bear and support materials.

Fisher House Donation
Jolie Durand
On Saturday, December 8th four youth members of the Georgetown Speak Out for Military Kids group and Georgetown 4-H Club, as well as an adult volunteer from Georgetown 4-H and two Operation: Military Kids program assistants came together to drop off donated dry goods, toys and handmade holiday cards to the Fisher House, which is located on the Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio. Fisher House is a facility which provides a “home away from home” feeling for families and their soldiers who are recovering from a war related injury. All donated items were individually selected for each child and wrapped in holiday paper to in order to give the children a more “normal” holiday season despite their circumstances. It took three vehicles to take all of the donated items to the Fisher House. All items were generously donated and collected by the Fort Sam Army Reserve 4th ESC unit, Georgetown 4-H club, other sources in the Williamson County area, The Comfort Crew for Military Kids, Operation: Military Kids, and the Spicewood 4-H Club.
