

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 11 - Lesson 2 Reproductive Non-Infectious Diseases

Questions

1. Describe three causes of infertility in cows.

2. List three factors that might cause abortion.

3. Describe three factors that can lead to dystocia.

4. List the reproductive factors of which a livestock manager should be aware.

5. Describe four signs that a cow with an ovarian cyst might display.

Fill-in-the-Blank

6. Ovarian cycles in mares normally occur in response to increasing _____.
7. A major cause of infertility in male livestock is _____.
8. _____ is the condition of difficult or impossible birth.
9. A key requirement for management of reproductive problems is _____.
10. _____ occurs when an ovarian follicle develops and matures but forms a fluid-filled cyst.
11. _____ is a period during which there is no estrous period, therefore breeding can not occur.
12. A _____ is an infertile heifer born twin to a bull.