

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 6 - Lesson 4 Handling & Restraining Livestock

Questions

1. Describe how a cow sees the world.

2. Describe safety considerations when working with bulls.

3. Explain how to halter a dairy cow.

4. Describe how to flank a calf.

5. Why do you have to handle beef and dairy cattle differently?

6. Describe how a horse sees the world. Why are they so nervous?

7. How must you behave to be a successful horse handler?

8. What is a nose twitch? What alternatives are there to the twitch and when would you use them?

9. List three ways to cast a horse. Which would you recommend?

10. Think about how a pig sees the world and describe why a hog hurdle is a useful tool.

11. What are the three ways a young pig can be restrained? List the procedures a veterinarian could perform in each position.

12. How can pigs hurt you, and what precautions should you take?

13. Describe how to set a ewe on her rump.

14. Why should you avoid separating individual ewes from the flock?

15. When should you handle goats and sheep the same way?